                                                            Make way, make way for the king
                                                            Wrapped in glory, dressed in majesty
(Instrumental)
Am C
              / / / (Acoustic intro 2X)
                                                            Make way, make way for the king
Pre-Chorus:
                                                            We lift up our voices, join with creation and sing
                 Am
You are the king of kings victorious
                                                                    Am
                       G
                                                            Make way, make way
 Am C
The risen one delights in us
So much so that he gave himself
                                                            Oh see the crown they placed upon him
                                    C = G
                                                                    G
Death couldnt hold back his love
                                                            Oh see the gamblings for his robe
                                  C G F
Death couldnt hold back his love
                                                            Now behold where he sits in heaven
                                                                                                      G

                                                            Let the rescued of the son proclaim
O behold the lamb has overcome
                                                            You are the king of kings victorious
Behold the lamb has overcome
                                                                  Am C
                                                            The risen one delights in us
Behold the lamb has overcome
Behold the lamb has overcome
                                                            Am
Behold the lamb has overcome
                                                            So much so that he gave himself
Behold the lamb has overcome
                                                            Death couldn?t hold back his love
Behold the lamb has overcome
Oh line of Judah triumphant one
                                                                                                     G
                                                            Make way, make way for the king

Look there he goes
        C
Willingly to the hill
                                                            We lift up our voices, join with creation and sing
Look there he dies
                                                            Ending:
All in jealousy for his children
                                                            Make way, Make way, make way, make way,
                                                                                                   Dm
