Amber Run - Machine

```
Tom: G
Intro: Dbm  E  E
        A  E  E
        Dbm  E  E
        A  E  E
```
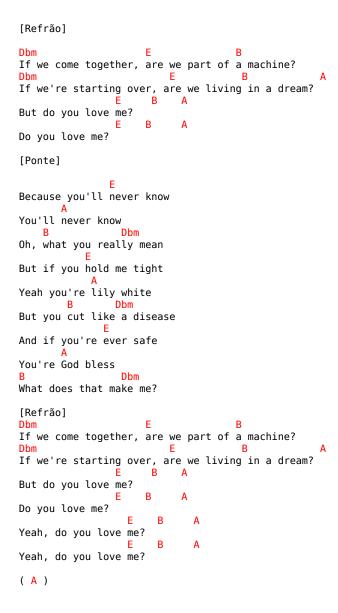

[Primeira Parte]

```
   A
I knew that it was coming
                           E  E  E  E
I could tell by the look in your eyes
   A
Oh, how could I forget you?
                 E  E  E  E
How could I forget that smile?
        Dbm
We've been living life by numbers
        A            E  E  E  E
Living a circuit at a time
        A
But it's everything, everything
```

[Refrão]

```
Dbm                    E            B
If we come together, are we part of a machine?
Dbm                      E         B          A
If we're starting over, are we living in a dream?
             E     B    A
But do you love me?
             E     B     A
Do you love me?
```

[Segunda Parte]

```
            A
And it's coming out backwards
                           E  E  E  E
It's coming out like I don't care
        A
And I want to tell you everything
                   E  E  E  E
I want to give myself away
        A
But it's everything, everything
```

[Refrão]

```
Dbm                        E            B
If we come together, are we part of a machine?
Dbm                        E         B            A
If we're starting over, are we living in a dream?
             E     B     A
But do you love me?
             E     B     A
Do you love me?
```

[Ponte]

```
                        E
Because you'll never know
         A
You'll never know
        B          Dbm
Oh, what you really mean
             E
But if you hold me tight
           A
Yeah you're lily white
         B          Dbm
But you cut like a disease
                        E
And if you're ever safe
        A
You're God bless
B                  Dbm
What does that make me?
```

[Refrão]

```
Dbm                        E            B
If we come together, are we part of a machine?
Dbm                        E           B            A
If we're starting over, are we living in a dream?
             E     B     A
But do you love me?
             E     B     A
Do you love me?
               E     B     A
Yeah, do you love me?
               E     B     A
Yeah, do you love me?
