

Amigo The Devil - Dahmer Does Hollywood

tom:

G
[Primeira Parte]

Give or take a few dudes from the bar
Take 'em home with me
This night
Is going to end horribly for someone
The tick is just talking away
I don't understand what it's trying to say
I think it says I'll drive my car like I stole it
Drink at the bar like I own it
And every dime spent
Is worth looking good, and that's Hollywood
And you know that she would

( Am Em Am Em )
( Am Em Am Em )

[Segunda Parte]

I am the son of an asshole
A drinker far too drunk to stay awake at his funeral
But that's alright, 'cause I left Milwaukee behind
For this refreshing town with this refreshing meat
Meet me down by the bar

We'll go and take this drink
Out to the stars

( C G Em )

[Refrão]

So come on, believe me

Acordes

Follow me home
There's no judgement here
We'll laugh a little, drink a little
See what you're made of
I'm capable of making you disappear
I am the agent that decides your fate
( Am E )

[Segunda Parte]

My hometown was nice, I didn't have to think twice
About who I recruited
There wasn't any fame, no one knew my name
I was so secluded
Baptized in bloody water
I'll make you famous one way or another
So you should start to undress and just try a little less
And I'll drill in your head what you need

To be king of this goddamn city

( Am C G Em )

[Refrão]

So come on, believe me
Follow me home
There's no judgement here
We'll laugh a little, drink a little
See what you're made of
I'm capable of making you disappear
I am the agent that decides your fate
