André Moura AlmaGuitars - Hear Me

Tom: E

m
Intro: Em G D A

     Em               G    D                      A
Sometimes I stop to think of all that I've been through
     Em            G    D     A
Pretending there was love, was it true?
    Em         G    D           A
Sometimes I wish I had someone who really cares
          Em        G    D     A
But my mind reminds me of what I regret

    Em  (G ) D            C    D      Em
So hear me now, there are angels on the ground
      Em  (G ) D           C    D      Em
And reach them'all, try to rise and not to fall
    Em  (G ) D         C    D     Em
Things gone wrong, it's where you don't belong
      Em  (G ) D      C    D    Em
The hurt you get, a scar you can't forget
      Em  (G ) D      G    D    Em

But do your best, and forgive all the rest

( C   D   Em )
( Em  G   D   A )

Em        G     D                     A
Yeah, I tried to find myself when you left me
        Em         G           D                 A
But now I see what is wrong to me, I just miss someone to love
      Em        G    D             A
I think of giving up, but because of you, it isn't worth

    Em  (G ) D            C    D      Em
So hear me now, there are angels on the ground
      Em  (G ) D           C    D      Em
And reach them'all, try to rise and not to fall
    Em  (G ) D         C    D     Em
Things gone wrong, it's where you don't belong
      Em  (G ) D      C    D    Em
The hurt you get, a scar you can't forget
      Em  (G ) D      G    D    Em
But do your best, and forgive all the rest
