

Andrew McMahon - Ohio

tom:

Intro: Gbm E D A

[Primeira Parte]

On a razor's edge at the first sign of light
 The car was packed while the house was quiet
 And sister slept as we started the drive
 To California, where it's warmer
 Gonna start a new life

[Pré-refrão]

Gonna miss Ohio but this time
 We're gonna get it right

[Refrão]

Station wagon tires flying
 Katie's counting crows through the tears in her blue eyes
 State lines and capitals go rushing by as I'm trying to find
 A station on the radio
 Everything's gonna be better on the west coast

( Gbm E D A )

[Segunda Parte]

The days move fast on the northern plains
 And I read the maps, the prairie grass moved in the wind like waves
 We can't look back, some men you just can't save
 We had our reasons for leaving, it's better this way

[Pré-refrão]

Gonna miss Ohio but I'm not Gonna miss the rain

[Refrão]

Station wagon tires flying
 Katie's counting crows through the tears in her blue eyes
 State lines and capitals go rushing by as I'm trying to find
 A station on the radio
 Everything's gonna be better on the west coast
 Better than the mess that we left back home
 In O Hi Oooo
 O Hi Oooo

[Ponte]

Goodbye blue house, goodbye red door
 Abandoned worlds where we drink on weekends
 This magnet's pulling from the ocean floor
 I can't forget the way you looked when we were leaving

[Refrão]

Tires flying
 Katie's counting crows through the tears in her blue eyes
 State lines and capitals go rushing by as I'm trying to find
 A station on the radio
 Everything's gonna be better on the west coast
 Better than the mess that we left back home
 In O Hi Oooo
 O Hi Oooo
 Ohio

Acordes

