tom:

Intro: G C G C

[Primeira Parte]

G
My good friend Paul was lying in
G
The backseat of a station wagon
Em C G
Headed to New Mexico
G
Somewhere in the middle of the night the driver fell asleep
Em C G
And hit the wall beside the road
D Em C
My friend went through the window like a bullet through the glass
Am G C D
Dead before he ever hit the ground

[Refrão]

Em C G Em C G
Oh I believe though its hard sometimes
Am C G C G C G
You are the resurrection and the life

[Segunda Parte]

G
Jody is a queen reigning
G
Prone upon a couch
Em C G
For the past few years of numbered days
G
Because the virus in her body and
G
The cancer in her brain
Em C G

Are buying up the real estate

D Em
The medicine they give her
C G
Trades nightmares for her dreams
Am G C D
Of memories too tragic to describe
[Refrão]

Em C G Em C G
Oh I believe though its hard sometimes
Am C G C G C G
You are the resurrection and the life
D Em C
I know the words of life to come are true
G D Em
But sometimes they feel like salt upon the wound
C G Am
When I'm asking in these moments where are you
G C D G C G C G
Where are you?

[Terceira Parte]

G
Sometimes its like Lazarus,
G
You come to roll the stone away
Em C G
And watch him walk back out alive
G
Sometimes its like my good friend Paul,
G
Breathless on the interstate
Em C G
Mother weeping at his side
D Em C G
Either way its something I will never understand
Am G C D
But I trust enough to take you at your word
Em C G Em C G
So I believe though its hard sometimes
Am C G C G C G
You are the resurrection and the life
