

Angra - Nothing to Say

Tom: E

m

Long ago, the same sky above
 "It's lonesome when the sun goes down"
 A day had come when we were like one
 Weapons up, never surrender!

Oooh, I saw the gleams of gold
 We'd kill and die conquering a virgin world
 The hold corrupted by the honour

Living forevermore, leaving today
 Back to my place, I've got
 Nothing to say!

Guilt and shame, it's all so insane
 Pagan gods die with no defense
 And we could go no further at all
 Digging the graves of our conscience

Oooh, the sounds, they still echo
 All of us drifting on seas of blood

The hope hidden behind the horror
 Living forevermore, leaving today
 Back from this land, I've got
 Nothing to say!

Living forevermore, leaving today
 For all what remains I've got
 Nothing to say!

Oooh, how many years have gone
 Every morning I bare myself from love
 The love rising up from the sorrow

Living forevermore, leaving today
 For all what remains I've got
 Nothing to say!

Living forevermore - Nothing to say!
 Back to my place, I've got
 Living forevermore - Nothing to say!
 For all what remains, I've got
 Nothing to say!
