We are the beasts, we are the saviors too
 Looking out across the land to nowhere
 There is a force to reckon with, divided
 It's only human nature

And what has been shall never be again
 Just dismiss the way we suffer
 There is more than life at stake

There is a way, I know
 We change our forms and grow
 The winds prevail
 Advance and sail into the sun
 There is no rain or snow
 To shroud the afterglow
 A new crusade, unrest will fade
 We're marching on
 Ride into the storm

The air is static, you can smell the burn
 Of a thousand points of light and thunder
 The clouds of years of hate will soon dispel
 To illuminate our minds and to free the truth again

We are the soldiers of the blessed, united Controlling circumstances

There is a way, I know
 We change our forms and grow
 The winds prevail
 Advance and sail into the sun
 There is no rain or snow
 To shroud the afterglow
 A new crusade, unrest will fade
 We're marching on
 Ride into the storm

This night, so quiet, no haze
 Calmness all around
 No fear, hope is near, follow
 The guiding light
 Onwards, to the eye, straight line
 Dive into the mayhem
 No trial, no deep denial, justice served

There is a way, I know
 We change our forms and grow
 The winds prevail
 Advance and sail into the sun
 There is no rain or snow
 To shroud the afterglow
 A new crusade, unrest will fade
 We're marching on
 Ride into the storm
