

Angra - Storm of Emotions

Tom: Db
Intro: Bbm F Gb F Bbm

1. Wake up my friend; Today life will show the answers
It's time for you to face the risk; Dark clouds will go away
They know your fears; Cause your mind can't hide connections
And disturb the harmony; For you to let it fade

Refrão: Let it out, let it go; Grab the chances
You've been waiting for so long
Let it out, take control; Find your way towards
The places you belong

2. Wake up my friend; You're in charge of your connections
It's time for you to face the day; Dark clouds were gone away
All the past?; Or maybe never seem to?
The minute you wake up;

Refrão: Let it out, let it go; Grab the chances
You've been waiting for so long
Let it out, take control; Find your way towards
The places you belong

3: I'll wait 'till the storm of emotions; Changes the tides
Afraid that the strong clouds of sorrow
Will haze my side and blind my eyes.

Refrão: Let it out, let it go; Grab the chances
You've been waiting for so long
Let it out, take control; Find your way towards
The places you belong

( Db C )
"Just wait the; Chances you've been waiting for so long Please wait and find your; Way towards the places you belong"
