

ANIE - And I Go (The New Beginning)

```
tom:
                                                                 Float through my eyes
Intro: G D G C
                                                                 Nothing is the same
Time was running wild
                                                                 Time can change my being
        Bm
                                                                 But I can't trace the feel
I'm sorry I can't breathe
                                                                 Always there
Ive turned myself to me
                                                                 Never ending try
Watching far from here
                                                                         Bm
                                                                 I believe
              Em
I've caught a glimpse
                                                                 Eyes never lie
Of what we have been made
                                                                 I'm Faster than this strain so ride with me
Savage like a dream
                                                                 And I gooo
I still recall the name
                                                                 These fellings make the turn inside of me
Always there
                                                                 This shall pass but everything is real
Never ending try
                                                                 Down on my knees I watch the flow of spring

D G Em G Bm C Em D
       D
I believe
Eyes never lie
                                                                 And I gooo
I'm faster than this test now I can see
                                                                 These fellings make the turn inside of \ensuremath{\mathsf{me}}
Faster than this strain so ride with me
                                                                 This shall pass but everything is real
And I gooo
                                                                 Down on my knees I watch the flow of spring
These fellings make the turn inside of me
                                                                   D G Em G Bm C Em D
This shall pass but everything is real
D E
                                                         Em D
Acordes
```

Down on my knees I watch the flow of spring... Going on

