

Anson Seabra - Robin Hood

tom:

Em
Could have been my happy ever after
C
Living like we're in a fairy tale
G
But you and me were more like a disaster
Bm
I should have known
Em
Intoxicated by your reputation
I can see the mischief in your eyes
G
Trusted you despite my reservations
Bm
Now I'm alone

Em C
I was so rich with all this love
G Bm
You wanted it and I was so dumb
Em C
I let you in when I should have run
G Bm
Now all that's left is something numb

Em
I gave you all I had to lose
C
My skin, my soul, my finest jewels
G Bm
You stole it all for someone new
Em
You gave away the best of me
C
My sins, my sweetest ecstasy
G
To someone worth much less than me
Bm Em
Yeah, you're my Robin Hood

Em
Everybody says that you're so great, yeah
C
Walk around like you deserve that gold
G
But what would happen if they knew the place that
Bm
You got it from?
Em

I guess that I was just another victim
C
Someone that you thought that you could play
G
I had a feeling and I should have listened
Bm
Now there's no us

Em C
I was so rich with all this love
G Bm
You wanted it and I was so dumb
Em C
I let you in when I should have run
G Bm
Now all that's left is something numb

Em
I gave you all I had to lose
C
My skin, my soul, my finest jewels
G Bm
You stole it all for someone new
Em
You gave away the best of me
C
My sins, my sweetest ecstasy
G
To someone worth much less than me
Bm Em
Yeah, you're my Robin Hood

Em C
So~~~ alone
G Bm
so~~~ alone
Em C
So~~~ alone
G Bm
so~~~ alone

Em
I gave you all I had to lose
C
My skin, my soul, my finest jewels
G Bm
You stole it all for someone new and then
Em
You gave away the best of me
C
My sins, my sweetest ecstasy
G
To someone worth much less than me
Bm Em
Yeah, you're my Robin Hood
