Anson Seabra - Robin Hood

tom: Fm Em Could have been my happy ever after Now there's no us Living like we're in a fairy tale С Em But you and me were more like a disaster Bm G Bm I should have known Fm Fm C Intoxicated by your reputation Bm I can see the mischief in your eyes G Trusted you despite my reservations Fm Bm Now I'm alone Em C I was so rich with all this love Bm Em You wanted it and I was so dumb C Fm I let you in when I should have run G Bm Now all that's left is something numb Bm Em Fm I gave you all I had to lose Fm ſ My skin, my soul, my finest jewels So~~~ alone G Bm You stole it all for someone new so~~~ alone Fm Fm C You gave away the best of me So~~~ alone G Bm so~~~ alone My sins, my sweetest ecstasy G To someone worth much less than me Fm Bm Yeah, you're my Robin Hood Fm Everybody says that you're so great, yeah Walk around like you deserve that gold

But what would happen if they knew the place that Bm You got it from? Fm

Acordes

I guess that I was just another victim Someone that you thought that you could play I had a feeling and I should have listened

I was so rich with all this love You wanted it and I was so dumb I let you in when I should have run Now all that's left is something numb I gave you all I had to lose My skin, my soul, my finest jewels You stole it all for someone new You gave away the best of me My sins, my sweetest ecstasy To someone worth much less than me Yeah, you're my Robin Hood

I gave you all I had to lose My skin, my soul, my finest jewels Bm You stole it all for someone new and then You gave away the best of me My sins, my sweetest ecstasy G To someone worth much less than me Bm Em Yeah, you're my Robin Hood
