

Anya Marina - Serious Love

Tom: F

I hate when you go

But I hate when you're here

I was fine all alone

Before you appeared, hmm

But the second you come back

Got me talking fast, making me weak

Throwing everything off track
All your trouble

I'm in too deep

Now I know what they mean when they say

It's serious

How could this be?

When we touch, it's a dream

Oh, you're making me delirious

This is serious love

Love, love

Now I'm losing sleep

Been lost in your arms

Watching you watching me

I can feel your heart against my heart

Yeah, every time you do that

Got me talking fast, making me weak

Throwing everything off track
All your trouble

I'm in too deep

Now I know what they mean when they say

It's serious

How could this be?

When we touch, it's a dream

Oh, you're making me delirious

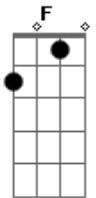

This is serious love

Love, love

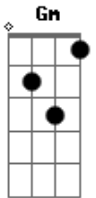

(This is serious) serious love

Love, love
