

Art of Dying - Better

Tom: C

I'm still the same man that took your hand those years ago
 Still feels like yesterday
 There's so many things I should've let you know
 So many things I need to say
 I need to say

There's no way out alive
 I'm running out of time
 You may never get this letter
 But if somehow I survive and make it out alive
 I'm gonna love you so much better
 I know I let my selfishness get in the way
 I should've given my time to you
 Why do we push the ones we love the most away?
 Why do I do the things I do?
 Why do I do what I do?

C Am

There's no way out alive
 I'm running out of time
 You may never get this letter
 But if somehow I survive and make it out alive
 I'm gonna love you so much better
 Love you so much better

You wake up everyday and do it all again
 One day it's the end
 Buried in the flames, never to be found
 My love, I let you down

There's no way out alive
 I'm running out of time
 You may never get this letter
 But if somehow I survive and make it out alive
 I'm gonna love you so much better
 Love you so much better
 Love you so much better
