

Arthur Russell - Close My Eyes

tom:

Intro: G
[Primeira Parte]

G C G
I'll close my eyes and listen
G Em C
To you, the corn come out
Am Em C
Don't you hear the stars, they glisten
G D C C C
As we go in and out

G C G
Down where the trees grow together
G Em C
And the western path comes to an end
Am Em C
To see the sign it says 'clear weather'
G D C
I'll meet you tonight, my friend

[Refrão]

G C
Will the corn be growing a little tonight
G D
As I wait in the fields for you?
C D Em C
Who knows what grows in the morning light

G D G
When we can feel the watery dew?

[Segunda Parte]

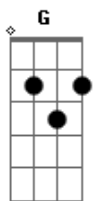

G C G
I just can't be there with no other
G Em C
I know those hills will be true
Am Em C
Away from my sister and brother
G D C
And down through the grasses so blue

G C G
The air is sweet and steady
G Em C
And flowers bloom out of sight
Am Em C
I know the sky is ready
G D C
Come meet me down here tonight

[Refrão]

G C
Will the corn be growing a little tonight
G D
As I wait in the fields for you?
C D Em C
Who knows what grows in the morning light
G D G C G
When we can feel the watery dew?
