

Aryy - Get a Clue

tom: Oh will you answer this time Or will you just ignore Like you tend to do Whenever i get too real And open up bout how i feel Then suddenly you disappear Oh why would you think that? How could you think it?s okay to come back And tell me that you miss me And tell me you?ve been dreaming of me So much that you didn?t say When you had the chance to Do you even have a clue? I?ve dreamed about you Way too many times I?ve cried at the sound of your voice I?ve waited patiently For a text that wouldn?t come

Acordes

I?ve poured my heart out to you
So why the hell would you
How could you think it?s okay to come back
And tell me that you miss me
And tell me you?ve been dreaming of me
So much that you didn?t say
               Em
When you had the chance to
Do you even have a clue?
What goes on inside that head of yours?
Do you even think of anyone besides yourself?
And what the hell am i supposed to say
To your i miss you?
Yeah i?ve missed you too for like a year
But now i?m over your shh
(GDEmC)
How could you think it's okay to come back
And tell me that you miss me
And tell me you've been dreaming of me
So much that you didn't say
When you had the chance to
Will you ever get a clue?
