

Assassin's Creed IV - The Star Of The County Down

```
Intro: G D Em
In Banbridge Town in the County Down
  Em C D
One morning last July
  Em
From a boreen green came a sweet colleen Em D Em
And she smiled as she passed me by
She looked so sweet from her two bare feet
\begin{tabular}{c|c} Em & C & D \\ \hline \end{tabular} To the sheen of her nut brown hair
Em G D
Such a coaxing elf, sure I shook my self
Em D Em
For to see I was really there
From Bantry Bay up to Derry Quay and Em C D
From Galway to Dublin Town
No maid I've seen like the brown colleen

Em D Em

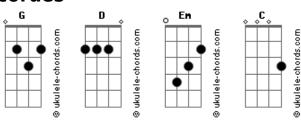

That I met in the County Down
( D Em D Em )
        Fm
                                    G
As she onward sped, sure I scratched my head
And I looked with a feelin' rare

Em G D
And I says, says I, to a passer-by Em D Em
Who's the maid with the nut brown hair?

D
He smiled at me and he says, says he \frac{\text{Em}}{\text{C}} \frac{\text{C}}{\text{D}} That's the gem of Ireland's crown

Acordes

Young Rosie McCann from the banks of the Bann
                      D
She's the star of the County Down
From Bantry Bay up to Derry Quay and Em C D
From Galway to Dublin Town,
No maid I've seen like the brown colleen

Em D Em
That I met in the County Down
( D Em D Em )
At the Harvest Fair she'll be surely there
And I'll dress in my Sunday clothes
With my shoes shone bright and my hat cocked right Em D Em
For a smile from my nut brown rose G D
No pipe \underline{\underline{I}}'ll smoke, no horse \underline{\underline{I}}'ll yoke
               C
Till my plough turns rust coloured brown
Till a smiling bride by my own fireside
    Em D Em
Sits the star of the County Down
From Bantry Bay up to Derry Quay and \begin{tabular}{c|c} Em & C & D \end{tabular}
From Galway to Dublin Town
No maid I've seen like the brown colleen
