

ASTN - Love No More

Tom: Db

You ain't looking for love no more
 You just looking for comfort
 Go cry me a river till you drown
 Go find you another

You ain't looking for love no more
 You just looking for comfort
 Go cry me a river drag me down

But I'm not going under
 Yeah, girl I used to make your heart race
 Lately we ain't speaking we just touching base
 I still remember times back at our place
 Saying you was mad but couldn't hold it straight
 Ooh that was back when it was real yeah
 Back when everything we said was from our feelings
 Every moment spent together we was building
 Now we constantly wounded and we ain't healing
 Can't nobody do it like I do it and you know that
 You was getting lazy and you still ain't got your flow back
