

ASTN - Love No More

Tom: Db

You ain't looking for love no more
 You just looking for comfort
 Go cry me a river till you drown
 Go find you another

You ain't looking for love no more
 You just looking for comfort
 Go cry me a river drag me down

But I'm not going under
 Yeah, girl I used to make your heart race
 Lately we ain't speaking we just touching base
 I still remember times back at our place
 Saying you was mad but couldn't hold it straight
 Ooh that was back when it was real yeah
 Back when everything we said was from our feelings
 Every moment spent together we was building
 Now we constantly wounded and we ain't healing
 Can't nobody do it like I do it and you know that
 You was getting lazy and you still ain't got your flow back

We just wasting time it seems like every time we go back
 Had your shot but girl your just a throwback

Yeah, girl I used to make your heart race
 Lately we ain't moving we just stuck in place
 Looking for comfort you feelings no ways

Seems like we're just going through the same phase
 Girl, you let it get to you

I know that it's all up in your head but that's it for you
 You just like the labels and all
 Like you taken and all
 Like you comfortable baby there's no more effort involved
 Girl it's simple as that

I ain't busting down walls
 You gave up way too easy and that's the real you I saw
 You can say I'm afraid
 One mistake and I'm gone

But you know that ain't true cus' you wasn't here all along

Ooh yeah yeah yeah
 Ooh yeah yeah yeah
