Intro: x2

Verso x5

Every single day I feel like I've been tested
Since the day I was born
Learned from my youth that life would tempt me with vices
'Til my shoes are well worn
Drilled through my head like an electric incisor
Trying to make a new hole
Am I a rare case or is that just what life is?
I suppose the love's cold
Hey

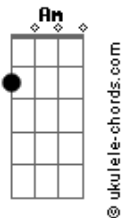

Refrão x2

Free from the pain
I said it once, I'll say it again
I'm free
From the pain
I said it once, I'll say it again

Verso x5

In between all the lightbreak and daydreams

Acordes

I could never hold true
But at night you could live in the moment
'Til the vulture finds you
'Cause every single day you feel like you've been sliding
Since the day you were born
Is it cruel or is that just what life is?
Only in death will you know
Hey

Refrão x2

Free from the pain
I said it once, I'll say it again
I'm free
From the pain
I said it once, I'll say it again

Interlúdio:

Refrão x2

Free from the pain
I said it once, I'll say it again
I'm free
From the pain
I said it once, I'll say it again
