

Aurora - Forgotten Love

Tom: A
Intro: D E F#M

Can you tell if I'm cold?
If I'm out of daydreams?
If I lose what is loved
Will a new love awake me?
I am touched by wonder
When I am blind in the dark
But you drown me in daylight
Don't swim with me darling
I prefer the sun of you
When you are away, away
(Teardrops are the corpses of a sweet goodbye)
If I am left with a rose in my hand
Let it die
It's the beauty in forgotten love
And I don't care if you don't understand why I cry
It's the beauty in forgotten love Ah

I forget how emotions dance when they aren't inside of me
I forget how the sun feels when she isn't around me

And my dreams become sweeter when something is missing
I'm in love with the hunt itself
It makes me feel alive, alive

If I am left with a rose in my hand
Let it die
It's the beauty in forgotten love
And I don't care if you don't understand why I cry
It's the beauty in forgotten love

Hanga Role Su Wunga fearless enough
Hanga Role Su Wunga fearless enough
Fearless enough Aruguirê Niguerê's Hunga role su
Wunga fearless enough fearless enough

I release my body
and there is no ghost of you inside my mind
I am moving on and thank God you let me try

You are the reason I can dance
Within the fire of goodbyes, of goodbyes
I can lie in the dark room without the feeling that I'm lonely
Oh, oh.(it's the beauty in forgotten love)

If I am left with a rose in my hand
Let it die
It's the beauty in forgotten love
And I don't care if you don't understand why I cry
It's the beauty in forgotten love

Oh, Woah,(it's the beauty in forgotten love),Oh
Oh, Woah,(it's the beauty in forgotten love)

Ah,Ah
