

Automatic Loveletter - Cruel Cruel

Tom: C

I wanna run away
 To somewhere far and somewhere safe
 So scared of this place
 Cause you don't even know me
 And you don't even care that I've been lonely
 And tired of fighting in the den of the lions where I won't even try
 And in the dead of the night I wait
 Early morning and I still haven't got some sleep
 Call me crazy
 Call me baby
 You can call me weak
 You don't even know, no you don't even know
 That the weight of the world on me
 I've been there and back again
 And it seems to me
 That a promise isn't something you keep
 And a secret never lasts
 It only sees what you see
 Cause it's a cruel cruel ride
 And if you want to come inside
 You better sit up and shut your eyes
 And hold on for dear life
 Cause if you don't then you will surely lose your mind
 But I won't
 I wanna hide my face

I wanna find the strength to get through this
 Oh I know I can do it
 It's the taste in my mouth
 It's the nauseousness
 It's my stomach in knots forming cascades of gunshots
 Leaving me holding a pen and this page and these words filled with rage
 And in the dead of the night I wait
 Early morning and I still haven't got some sleep
 Call me crazy
 Call me baby
 You can call me weak
 You don't even know
 Cause it's a cruel cruel ride
 And if you want to come inside
 You better sit up and shut your eyes
 And hold on for dear life
 Cause if you don't then you will surely lose your mind
 But I won't
 "Hello, can anyone hear me?"
 "Oh, does anyone know me?"
 "No, can anyone hear me?"
 "No, can anyone love me?"
 "No, can anyone, can anyone hear me?"
 Cause it's a cruel cruel ride
 And if you want to come inside
 You better sit up and shut your eyes
 And hold on for dear life
 Cause if you don't then you will surely lose your mind
 But I won't
 But I won't
 I won't
 I won't
