                                                         D Em G
Such a wreck, such a wreck
              Fm
 Staring at the pavement alone

Em G
                                                         I hope it's not forever
 Wishing I was on my way home to you
                                                            D Em G
          Em G
                                                         Will I see you again?
All the shops in London are closed
                                                               D Fm
                                                         I wish it was me and you until the end
         D Em
And I don't know where to go from here
                                                               D Em
                                                         But I know I'm a mess, I'm a mess

                                                         Oh, 'cause I know that I have my issues
D Em
 I'm a mess, I'm a mess
                                                         The less we talk the more I miss you
                                                         I die just a little, die just a little
When we're not together D Em (
Such a wreck, such a wreck
                                                         I'm slipping closer to the edge
I hope it's not forever
                                                         I hear your voice, it's in my head

It right
But I don't know where to go from here
                                                         (Avril Lavigne)
No, I don't know where to go from here
                                                           I'm a mess, I'm a mess
But T know
