

Backstreet Boys - Nowhere To Go

Tom: D

Looking for beauty in a certain
 Finding the strength inside a gray
 Maybe you're heading for a breakdown
 And maybe that's ok
 Could be that you're hanging on for dear life
 Maybe you need to get a grip
 Cause you're the only one
 That makes me feel like this
 Save me I'm falling again
 Keep me from
 Breaking in a million pieces
 In the end no matter what I do
 There's nowhere nowhere to go

Nowhere to go but you
 Tryin to make nothing
 Out of Something
 Promise myself I wouldn't care
 Maybe you're making me a liar
 Cause I'm sitting here
 Finally cracking my resistance
 And find a way to wear me down
 I just look at you
 And there's no way out
 Every single road I take (it's you)
 Asleep or wide awake (it's you)
 And it's too late for anyone to save me
