Bad Religion - Faith In God

Tom: C

   B A C A C x2

B
it's all right to have faith in god
            G (High)   B
but when you bend to their rules and their fucking lies G (low)
that's when I start to have pity on you.

B G(H) B G(L)

you're living on a mound of dirt,
A   C   A   C
but you can't explain your reason for existence
B   A C A C
so you blame it on god.

so much hatred in this world and you can't decide who's pulling the strings so you figure it's god.

your whole life foreshadows death and you finally realize you don't want to die alone so you'll always have god.
A C x6

it's all right to have faith in god
but when you bend to their rules and their fucking lies
that's when I start to have pity on you.

it's all right to have faith in god
but when you bend to their rules and their fucking lies
that's when I start to have pity on you.

there's people in the world today who say they're Jewish, Christian and such, they're all ignorant fools.

they'll tell you you can't have your own way unless you pay money and dedicate your life or you'll be damned in hell.

don't be feeble like all of them,
you have your own brain full of thoughts and choices,
so use it don't let them use you.

it's all right to have faith in god
but when you bend to their rules and their fucking lies
that's when I start to have pity on you.
