

Bad Religion - It s A Long Way To The Promise Land

Tom: B

Riff:

It's a long way to the promise land so you'd better well know your way
There's a ship on the ocean and an albatross who is trying to lead you astray

E B A B
Leaders, politicians, and power whores
are in line to receive your choice
And you bet your ass, if you give it to them,
they will gladly take your voice

Chorus:
And it's a long way to the promise land Wo-oh Oh oh oh
And it's a long way to the promise land Wo-oh Oh oh oh

(Riff)
It's a long way to the promise land, if we work we might find it here
There's no substitute for enlightenment, there's no reason for bridled fear

E B A B
When you join the people who've joined the club
you gotta clench and play your hand
'Cuz if you fall in line you're gonna fall in time and you'll never make a stand

(Chorus)

Bridge:
What are you going to do? When they call for you?
Bend and capitulate? Or keep your head on straight?

E B A B
Easy answers bought without experience,
is gonna l lead you to certain doom
Because the truth is just what you make of it,
it begins and ends with you!

(Chorus)x2

Get in line
