A F
Dm
I ain't superstitious but, hey, do you know a good exorcist?
A F
Dm
Despite darker tendencies I've always had a strong bias to exist
A F
Dm
And though recent developments seem like bad news for humanity
A F D
Self-pity is always a case of mistake identity

F G
Don't lose your head
F G
Don't lose your head
F D G
Don't lose your head
F G
Don't lose your head
D A
Before you lose your head, yeah

A F
Dm
Religion, who needs it? And by the way, how should we bury our dead?
A F
Dm
"i doubt that it matters much, son", that's what the postman said
A F Dm
There's an accident waiting to happen at all times anyway

A F D
And maybe we'd all benefit from some epistemic humility

F G
Don't lose your head
F G
Don't lose your head
F D G
Don't lose your head
F G
Don't lose your head
D A
Before you lose your head, yeah

A Dbm D A
And when your life endeavor evades your clever meddling
A D D E
It's only headphone weather, so get your head together

F G
Don't lose your head
F G
Don't lose your head
F D G
Don't lose your head
F G
Don't lose your head
D A
Lose your head, yeah
