a|-3-3-|
E|-1---|
F-C

guitar 2

We are just a step away from realizing what we strive to be

But we've got to break out from this insulated blind and lame Solo:
senility

Chorus:

Wake up the new america Wo-oh! wo-oh!

Transcend the mass hysteria Wo-oh! wo-oh!

Change is the thing you're wary of Wo-oh! wo-oh!

We need a new america Wo-oh! wo-oh!

guit2)

(Intro)

Laurels, human triumph, bestowments from the past Victories don't mean a thing if they don't last

We are just marching toward extinction with blinders on our eyes

Jeopardizing everything we've learned and come to realize you call that wise?

Open your eyes america Wo-oh! wo-oh!

See through the lies they tell to us Wo-oh! wo-oh!

Confront the fears that worry us Wo-oh! wo-oh!

We need a new america Wo-oh! wo-oh!

We don't have to be afraid to re-invent we've got to start to build,
Progress, and implement for when we take our fill,
And never pay the price we only build ourselves a fleeting,
false paradise

you can live in staunch denial and mark me as your enemy but I'm just a voice among the throng who want a brighter destiny
they say with me

We are the new america Wo-oh! wo-ho!

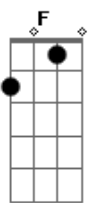

this is the new america? Wo-oh! wo-oh!

We are the new america Wo-oh! wo-ho!

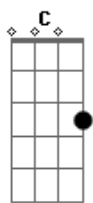

this is the new america? Wo-oh! wo-oh!
