

Bad Religion - The Answer

Tom: G

Em C A C D Em
 Long ago, in a dusty village full of hunger, pain and strife,
 A man came forth with a vision of truth and a way to a better life.

Em G C
 He was convinced he had the answer and he compelled people to follow along.

B C A
 But the hunger never vanished, and the man was banished, and the village dried up and died.

Em D C
 At a time when wise men peered through glass tubes toward the skies,

Em D C
 The Heavens changed in predictable ways and one man was able to find,

Em G C
 That he had thought he'd found the answer and he was quick to write his revelations.

B C A C
 But as they were scrutinised in his colleagues eyes, he soon became a mockery.

Em G C
 Don't tell me about the answer 'cause then another one will come along soon.

Em G C B
 I don't believe you have the answer, I've got ideas too.

C A
 But if you've got enough naiveté, and you've got conviction,
 Then 'The Answer' is perfect for you.

Solo:

Em D C
 An urban sprawl sits, choking on it's discharge, overwhelmed by industry,

Em D
 Searching for a modern day saviour from another place, inclined toward charity

Em G C D
 Everyone begging for an answer without regard to validity,

A C
 The searching never ends, it goes on and on and on for eternity.

 AAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHH

C D Em
 The answer is perfect for youuuuuuuuu!
