Standing Out into the night

A stranger came to the coffee shop

My mind is playing tricks on me

I feel a cold drop

Trickling down my back and

What can I say? Hey

Would you believe me

If I said I fell in love in a couple of seconds?

[Refrão]

And listens to our desires

Indeed, oh I'm into you

Why did I say this?

What did I expect? a kiss?

You're paid to say

"May I take your order please?"
