

Bahsi - You're Wrong

Tom: A m

it sounds untrustworthy the way i speak
 Now my eyes are hidden you can't see
 But i'm watching you moving around

I was walking freely, carrying with me
 A harmonica in the key of c
 I was there in the corner
 When the cop gave me an order
 Screaming unnecessarily

this is not what you think
 It is just an instrument, but i knew it was too late

?down down down, put your gun down? he said
 ?sir you have to calm down and put your hands on your head?
 And then people came and started pointing fingers at me
 Saying ? i don't know what you have done boy

All i know is you're wrong!?

are you uncomfortable with me?
 Cause you're walking quickly if i had the superpower of invisibility
 I know i would finally be safe here

I was walking freely, carrying with me
 A harmonica in the key of c
 I was there in the corner
 When the cop gave me an order
 Screaming unnecessarily

this is not what you think
 It is just an instrument, but i knew it was too late

?down down down, put your gun down? he said
 ?sir you have to calm down and put your hands on your head?
 And then people came and started pointing fingers at me
 Saying ? i don't know what you have done boy
 All i know is you're wrong!?
