 Intro: C Am F C
 G Am F C G

[Verse 1]

I went lookin' at pictures I didn't wanna see
 They brought back memories
 You look happy, I guess, got the life that you wanted
 But it ain't with me
 You would think by now that I wouldn't care
 It's been a couple years and, yeah, I've had my share
 Of other broken-up hearts, but I only shed real tears over ours

[Chorus]

And now I'm in this cold bright light
 And this don't even feel like life
 'Cause I don't have the only woman who believed in me
 Religiously
 And now I'm in the back of the church
 Prayin' just to stop the hurt
 'Cause I don't have the only woman who was there for me
 Religiously

[Verse 2]

Remember watchin' you playin' me our song on guitar
 I thought I'd marry you
 Act like I'm happier now, but all of my friends know
 That ain't the truth
 And lately life's been good to me
 Mama's healthy and I'm helpin' out the whole family

Lotta people know my name, I made a little change
 But that don't mean nothin'
 [Chorus]
 And now I'm in this cold bright light
 And this don't even feel like life
 'Cause I don't have the only woman who believed in me
 Religiously
 And now I'm in the back of the church
 Prayin' hard just to stop the hurt
 'Cause I don't have the only woman who was there for me
 Religiously

[Bridge]

You brought me to God and I put you through hell
 You were all about us, I was all about myself
 What kind of man would lose a woman like that?
 If my soul could be forgiven, I would give it all back

[Chorus]

Now I'm in this cold bright light
 And this don't even feel like life
 'Cause I don't have the only woman who believed in me
 Religiously
 And now I'm in the back of the church
 Beggin' God just to stop the hurt
 'Cause I don't have the only woman who believed in me
 Religiously

[Final]

I ain't got the only woman who was there for me
