(Then play the next first three measures a few times until right before the chorus, then play the last measure once or twice):

Verse 1 (dist guitar/bar chords whole song):

Gm I'm fixing that drink in the morning, with the way things are
Gm You may have stayed too lonnnnnng
F You're splitting apart at the seams, from the heart's bitter call
Gm You know him so lonnnn-nnnggg

Chorus 1:
Eb If there's a god up in the air, someone looking over everyone
Eb At least you got something to fall back onnnnnn

Verse 2:
Gm Deep in the heart of the country was a house I built from love
Gm

A raven-headed lady, aaaalllllll
Gm Quiet and calm through the day, see the sunburn burn thru the hall
Gm Approaching was a yellow...dog

Chorus 2:
Eb If there's a god up in the air, someone looking over everyone
Eb At least you got something to fall back onnnnnn
Eb And what are people really for? Does anybody even care?
Eb I betcha get a lot of compliments down there

Solo (parcial):

Chorus 3:
Eb If there's a god up in the air, someone looking over everyone
Eb At least you got something to fall back onnnnnn
Eb Do ya got something to say? Is it something coming over you?
Eb Or do you got more important things left to do?

End on: Gm
