

Barbara Dickson - Memory

Tom: C

Intro: 4x: C

C
Midnight, not a sound from the pavement

Em
Has the moon lost her memory, she is smiling alone

C
In the lamplight, the withered leaves, collected my fee

And the wind begins to moan.

Memory, all alone in the moonlight

Am F Em
I can smile at the old days, it was beautiful then

Em G C
I remember the time I knew what happiness was

Let the memory live again.

C
Daylight, I must wait for the sunrise

Am F
I must think of a new life, and I mustn't give in

Em G C
When the dawn comes, tonight will be a memory, too

G C Em
And a new day will begin. Burnt out ends of smoky days,

Em
The stale cold smell of morning the street lamp dies,

G
Another night is over, another day is dawning

C Am
Touch me, it's so easy to leave me,

Am F
All alone with the memory of my day in the sun

Em G
If you touch me, you'll understand what happiness is

C
Look a new day, has begun

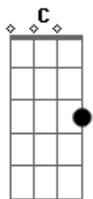

C Am
Memory, all alone in the moonlight

Am F
I can smile at the old days, it was beautiful then

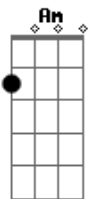

Em G
I remember the time I knew what happiness was

C
Let the memory live again
