

Bárbara Rocha - Be Strong

Tom: C
Intro: Am
We don't live forever
But our memories are for eternity
We never stop here

Each one carries a mystery
And the shadows will follow me
Turn on the light gently
Turn off the agony

We are sure about the end of our lifes
But we fear too much this moment and we cry
What I do? where I go?
What I pray for?
what I throw away?

We've gotta be strong
We have to move on
We've got to realize
How worth the sacrifice
Of being alive

I've been questioning myself
I've been crying for help

We never see it clear
What is wrong whit this world?
We attach when we can't Fight and hate in present
But we drop tears in the end
The battle's real
No room for pretense
I said ?too late?
Probably your big mistake too
And when you lose
You lose it all
Clock is ticking
You're a Fireball
It doens't matter how hard I punch the wall
How many times I break mirrors and crawl
Between wreckage and glass
Pain and regrets
No one can bring you back

We've gotta be strong
We have to move on
We've got to realize
How worth the sacrifice
Of facing troubles going on Face what did go wrong
