

Bárbara Rocha - The Letter

Tom: B

I think I don't know how to write love songs

I swear I don't know what I did wrong

Do I have sorrow left inside?

Let me cry a song for you tonight?

I promise you I'll try a little bit

To prove yourself I'm more than this

I could draw a letter and add some melody on

And spread the lyrics to everyone

Remembering

Our happiness

All those years

So let me fix it up before a new day comes

?Pen and paper? is all I need for once

And let me walk with you

Where are those sparkles in the eyes?

Everybody sees yours not mine

Did I lose faith?

I'm terrified.

So let me close my eyes and feel it

To write the words you still believe in

And tomorrow I won't bleed to death

Then you'll be lay down in my bed

Caressing my hair

Let me learn (2x)

How to love

Let me learn

Please let me learn to LOVE

I need to learn (2x)

I need to learn now

Tomorrow cannot exist

I'll be better be freeze

Than not deliver you this

I guess I finish our love song

I swear I don't know what I did wrong

Do I have to step aside?

Please

Let me sing a song for you tonight?
