

Barbie Dias - Sometimes Love Hurts

tom:

G

Everything about love its hard to learn
 Cause when you're in love there's no way to turn
 One day you're happy in the other you're in pain
 Nothing compares to you and can't be in vain

[Refrão]

There's no answers for any love
 One day you're in heaven in the other you're in hell
 Should i cut him off or should i try again
 Cause i can't stop this feeling this feeling
 The hearts shouts for what he wants
 The love fights to give us a chance
 There's no right , there's no wrong
 I'm only happy in you're arms oh oh oh

So forget about tomorrow

And love for today oh ohh oh

[Refrão]

There's no answers for any love
 One day you're in heaven in the other you're in hell
 Should i cut him off or should i try again
 Cause i can't stop this feeling this feeling
 One day you are happy and in the other you're in pain
 Nothing compares to you and can't be in vain

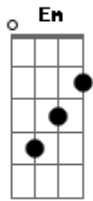

[Refrão]

There's no answers for any love
 One day you're in heaven in the other you're in hell
 Should i cut him off or should i try again
 Cause this feeling wont go away go away
