

Barry Manilow - The Old Songs

Tom: C

C G Am7 Cm7 G Am7 Dm Edim Gdim Dm7
Candles burning, glasses are chilled and soon she'll be by;

Dm G G Dm G G
Hope and pray she'll say that she's willing

C Fdim C
To give us another try

F Dm7 E Em
And if all those plans I made don't melt the lady's heart,

F Em7 G7
I'll put on the old 45's,

Fdim C C G C Am
And maybe the old songs will bring back the old times,

G Am7 Dm7 D7 Am7 F
Maybe the old lines will sound new;

G D7 Dm7 G Gdim Dm7
Maybe she'll lay her head on my shoul - der

G C C G C Cm7 C7
Maybe old feelings will come through

F Dm7 Fdim Bm7- E7 Bm7- Fdim Am
Maybe we'll start to cry and wonder why we ever walked a - way--

G C C Am F Dm7
Maybe the old songs will bring back the old times

G G C

And make her wanna stay.

C G Am7 Cm7 G Am7 Dm Edim Gdim
Dm7
It's been too long since I've seen her face light up when I come home;

Dm G G Dm G G C Fdim C
It's been too many hours I've wast - ed staring at the phone.

F Dm7 E Em
Sweet old songs, I'm counting on you to bring her back to me;

F Em7 G7
I'm tired of listening alone.

Fdim C C G C Am
And maybe the old songs will bring back the old times,

G Am7 Dm7 D7 Am7 F
Maybe the old lines will sound new;

G D7 Dm7 G Gdim Dm7
Maybe she'll lay her head on my shoul - der

G C C G C Cm7 C7
Maybe old feelings will come through

F Dm7 Fdim Bm7- E7 Bm7- Fdim Am
Maybe we'll start to cry and wonder why we ever walked a - way--

G C C Am F Dm7
Maybe the old songs will bring back the old times

G G C
And make her wanna stay.
