

Basia Bulat - Gold Rush

Tom: A

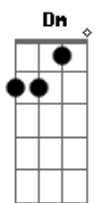

m
 How could I be the last to know?
 When they told me where the fool had gone?
 I was but the youngest one
 Up there on the hills they're climbing on
 You went up with an open heart
 When they found you it was all but cold
 Those hounds they sing so low
 Up there on the hills they're climbing on
 You saw the light of gold and rushed
 You said you couldn't fight it off
 This is the story of the one you lost
 And I wanted to run over your love
 You found it in the deepest thorns
 Flooded up from the darkest wells
 Bring your heartstrings with the bells
 Up there on the hills they're climbing on
 And if I hadn't drowned up there
 In the night before the storm took hold
 I know I would find them gold
 Up there on the hills they're climbing on
 Another sight of gold and rush
 Oh I could never fight them off
 Another story of the one you lost

And I wanted to run over your love
 In the darkest of days
 In my daydreams there
 There in the eye of that tempest
 You're nearer to me
 21 years
 You've been here every morning
 21 roses you hold
 But they're fading now
 I'm still there waiting

 How could I be the last to know?
 When they told me where the fool had gone?
 Oh I was but the youngest one
 Up there on the hills they'll find me on
 Another sight of gold and rush
 Oh I could never fight them off
 Another story of the one you lost
 And I wanted to run over
 I wanted to take over
 I wanted to run over your love
