

Bastille - Weight Of Living (Pt. I)

Tom: G

There's an albatross around your neck
 All the things you've said
 And the things you've done
 Can you carry it with no regrets
 Can you stand the person you've become
 Ooh there's a light / Ooh there's a light

 Your Albatross, let it go, let it go
 Your Albatross shoot it down, shoot it down
 When you just can't shake
 The heavy weight of living

 Stepping forward out into the day
 Shrugging off the dust and memory
 Though it's soaring still above your head
 It is out of sight and none shall see
 Ooh there's a light / Ooh there's a light

Your Albatross, let it go, let it go
 Your Albatross shoot it down, shoot it down
 When you just can't shake
 The heavy weight of living
 When you just can't seem to shake
 The heavy weight of Living

 It's the sun in your eyes, in your eyes (4x)

 Your Albatross, let it go, let it go
 Your Albatross shoot it down, shoot it down
 When you just can't shake
 The heavy weight of living
 When you just can't seem to shake
 The heavy weight of Living
