

The Beach Boys - Break Away

```
Tom: F
                                                                  Telling me now "Hey it's only a dream"
                                                                  Gm7 C
  C
                                                                  The more I thought of it
                                 Dm
        (Break, break, shake away, break, break away)
                                                                  I had been out of it
         Gm7 C7 F7 F E
        (Do what, do what I wanna do)
                                                                                                         Bb
                                                                        G
        Dm7 G7 Gm7 D7
                                                                  And here's the answer I found instead
                                                                              С В
                                                                  (Baby baby) Found out it was in my head
        Time will not wait for me
                                                                                      С В
                                                                  (Baby baby) Found out it was in my head
        A7 Dm
        Time is my destiny
                                                                                       С
                                                                  (Baby baby) Found out it was in my head
        Why change the part of me that has to be free
                                                          Chorus 2:
        The love that passed me by
                                                                                          Dm
                                                                  And I can breakaway to the better life
             A7
        I found no reason why
                                                                              Gm7 C7 F7
              G
                                                                  Where the shackles never hold me down
        But now each day is filled with the love (Bb)
                                                                          Dm7 G7
                                                                  I'm gonna make a way for each happy day
        That very same love
                                                                               D7
                                                                  As my life turns around
        That passed me by
                                                          Coda:
               G7 G7
        And that is why
                                                                   Bb
                                                                  Come on we're free to break away
Chorus 1:
                                                                  Now won't you come on, you're free to break away
        I can breakaway from that lonely life
               Gm7
                       C7 F7
                                                          Gm
        And I can do what I wanna do
                                                                       Come on you're free to break, break away
           Dm7 G7
        And breakaway from that empty life
                                                                       Come on you're free to break, break away
           D7
        And my world is new
                                                                  Feel the vibrations in all the sensations, breakin'
                                                          awav
        Gm7
        When I laid down on my bed
                                                                  Feel the vibrations in all the sensations, breakin'
              A7 Dm
                                                               (Fade)
                                                          away
        I heard voices in my head
```

Acordes

