

Beach House - Heart Of Chambers

Would you be my long time baby?
                          tom:
                                                                     Eb7
                                                           I'd like to Eb7

Where you sit
                                                           You could finally learn to Eb7
                                                           Abm7
With your picture books
                                                           We've put our words
 Abm
And your ancient wit
                                                           Down by our sides
      Eb7
In that nook I found you
                                                           Let's take the time
               Gb7
So old and tired
                                                           To mend these smiles
       Eb7
                                                                              Abm6
                 Abm
                                                           Together we could make it home
Would you be the one to carry
        Eb7 Abm Gb7
Me? I'd like to be someone
                                                           Love is a prize

                                                           Gb7
You could finally learn to love again, ahh
                                                           Live our own lives
( Abm Gb7 )

            Eb7
Made our iron bed side
                                                           ( B Eb7 Abm Gb7 )
         Gb7
Cold as graves
                                                                                        Eb7 Abm
        Eb7
                                                           In our beds we're the lucky ones
                                                                     B Eb7 Abm
So we stoke the organs
                                                           \mathsf{Em}

                                                           Filled with the sun
That may comfort grace
          Eb7
                                                           In our beds we're the lucky ones
And they conjured spirits
                                                                       B Eb7 Abm
                                                           Fill us with the sun
To make you smile
