

Beach House - Hurts To Love

Looking out at the wide, wild world

It's a lot for the boys and girls

There's a lot of bad things out there

When they nod and they just don't care

You've got imagination

If it hurts to love

Better do it anyway

A friend of mine was a friend of yours

It's a gift, but it's always a curse

To go on without it

You caught a ride from a bad, bad heart

It's the thing that tears you apart

It's got to come from something

If it hurts to love you

Should I walk away?

If it hurts to love

You better do it anyway

If it hurts too much

Well, I loved you anyway

Looking out at the wide, wild world

It's a lot for the boys and girls

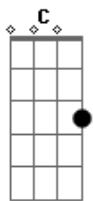

You carve it out of a bad, bad heart

It's the thing that tears us apart

If it hurts to love

Better do it anyway
