

Bear Me Again - Here, I'm Fine

Tom: A

Intro: A D

The lights I see are trembling,
Coloring my sweaty neck

And the crowd around is like walls to me,
My anxiety and prospect

And, here I'm fine,

Here, I'm fine

It took me a while sharpening,
To me it wasn't just an ax

And it was not as hard to swing it in,
As it was watching the fall of my conquests

But here, I'm fine,

Here, I'm fine

Being here feels good

And I had not understood

That what makes it here feel good is you
