

Bear's Den - All That You Are

tom:

C

Am

A year ago today

C

G

I was stood beside you outside the courtroom

Am

And when they called your name

C

G

You thought I'd be ashamed but I stood taller

Am

For you've already served

C

G

All that you deserved, for many lifetimes over

Am

And when they called your name

C

G

You thought I'd be ashamed but I stood taller

(Am C G)

And money always flowed

C

G

From the pockets of clothes to the hands of another

Am

And copper, silver, gold

C

G

A greater love was sold, down the Craig Matty River

Am

He promised you the world

C

G

You let your unfold right down his shoulders

Am

He promised you the world

C

G

And that same old world is just getting smaller

[Refrão]

Am C

G

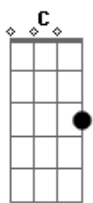

Oh Maaaama, I told you all the time
