It's a new era for this country

C B C B C B C C B C

We've got too far, and now we're very proud of us

Now listen to your president!

(E)

There's a Rogue nation under our feet

E I can feel it, I can feel it

E Where are the bad guys I saw on TV?

E Are they there, are they here?

E Government is in danger 'cause there are spies

E But we can't find them, we can't find

E Ready to explode our nation, make us slave

E Save us, Save us

E The president is an alien, he will eat our heads

E The president is an alien, Don't look at him, don't look

E The president is an alien He hypnotized you

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The aliens are coming, don't look at them

E Don't look at them, Don't look

E The aliens are coming to eat our heads

E Don't look at them, don't look

E The president makes us feel like we are safe

E But we are not, but we are not

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien

E The president is an alien, he will eat our heads

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E He eats our brains

E He eats our heads

E The president is an alien

E President is an alien

E The president is an alien, he will eat our heads

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

E The president is an alien, president is an alien

The president is an alien, Don't

B Look at him, don't look (don't look)

E The president is an alien He hypnotized you

C The president is an alien, president is an alien
