

Bee Gees - Black Diamonds

Tom: G

^G Where are you? ^A I love you.

^D Where are you? ^{Bm} I love you.

^G Where are you ^A to keep me ^D warm?

^D I had a dream

^G Of a place far away.

^D I followed a river

^G Where the dead man would play.

^{Bm} And I'm leaving in the ^G morning.

^{Bm} And I'm leaving in the ^G morning.

^D And I won't die, ^A so don't cry. ^D I'll be ^G home.

^D Those big ^A black diamonds

^D That lie there ^A for me.

^D That lie there ^A for me.

By the tall white mountains

^D Which lie by the ^A sea.

^D And you a man

^G Whom as tall as the sky

^D Followed a river

^G Where thousands have died.

^{Bm} He was leaving in the ^G morning.

^{Bm} He was leaving in the ^G morning.

He said

^D If I come home ^A and my women ^D has ^G flown.

^D Those big ^A black diamonds

^D That lie there ^A for me.

^D By the tall white ^A mountains

^D Which lie by the ^A sea.

^D Say goodbye ^A to auld ^C lang ^D syne
