

Bee Gees - Cucumber Castle

Tom: F

Gm F
 Here were the trees, see the grass, a Pinkerton spy.
 Fm Bb D
 Said "This is the place I will try," and he did.
 Gm F
 Stood in the dark ,sat a man who beckoned him in,
 Fm Bb D
 But leaving his grass was a sin, but he did.

G C G
 Cucumber Castle be ever so humble it's home.
 Bb D Gm
 He saw the light in the cellar reflect in his eyes,
 Bb F7 G
 Yet early that morning was he to receive a surprise.
 G C G

Cucumber Castle be ever so humble it's home.
 G C G
 Cucumber Castle be ever so humble it's home.

Gm F
 Said 'Are you leaving or are you receiving my friend,
 Fm Bb D
 Doest need any money till then" and he did .
 Gm F
 He said "I'm the owner,not you, and this is my stead,
 Fm Bb D
 So give it to me now I'm dead, and he did , said:

G C G
 Cucumber Castle be ever so humble it's home.
 G C G
 Cucumber Castle be ever so humble it's home.
