A E D A
Sunday morning, woke up yawning, filled the pool for a swim,
A pulled down the head and looked in the glass just to see if I was in,
A went up the stairs and kissed my woman to make her come alive
A 'cause with fifteen kids and a family on the skids,
A I got to go for a Sunday drive.
A Fifteen kids and a family on the skids,
A I got to go for a Sunday drive.
A That's how they are, so I grabbed out the car, convertible fifty-nine,
A headed to the freeway, tried to find the Pasadena sign.
A Ten miles and three quarters, I wasn't feeling any more alive,
A 'cause with fifteen kids and a family on the skids,
A I got to go for a Sunday drive.
A Fifteen kids and a family on the skids,
A I got to go for a Sunday drive.
A I used to be a minstrel free with a whole lot of bread in my bag.
A I used to feel that my life was real, but the Good Lord threw me a snag.
A Now I'm gonna be the same as me, no matter how I try.
