Oh, girl I've known you very well
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Let history repeat itself
I've seen you growing everyday
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Reflecting how I feel for you
I never really looked before
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Thinking about those people then
But now you take my breath away
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               I know that in a thousand years
Suddenly you're in my life
